Butternut Squash Risotto

Ingredients:

- 6-8 cups chicken broth (use vegetable broth for vegetarian option)
- 5 Tbsp unsalted butter, divided into 4 Tbsp and 1 Tbsp
- 1 small onion, finely chopped
- 2 cups butternut squash, peeled, and finely diced
- 2 cups arborio rice (can substitute medium grained white rice, but arborio is preferred)
- 1 cup dry white wine (such as Sauvignon Blanc)
- 1 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 Tbsp chopped chives or garlic chives
- Salt

Preparation:

Heat broth in medium sized saucepan and keep warm over low heat. Melt 4 Tbsp of butter in a large saucepan, add onion and butternut squash. Cook over medium heat until onion is translucent, about 5 minutes.

Add rice to onion and squash. Cook 1 to 2 minutes. Add wine, cook, stirring constantly until wine has been absorbed by the rice. Add a few ladles of broth, just enough to barely cover rice. Cook over medium heat until broth has been absorbed. Continue cooking and stirring rice, adding a little bit of broth at a time, cooking and stirring until it is absorbed, until the rice is tender, but still firm to the bite, about 15 to 20 minutes.

During the last minutes of cooking, add remaining tablespoon of butter, 1/3 cup Parmesan, and chives. At this point the rice should have a creamy consistency. Add salt to taste. Serve with remaining grated Parmesan.

Roast Local Chicken with Apple, Onion, Rosemary Pan Stew

A perfectly roasted chicken is the essence of home cooking, especially when the chicken and its fixings are raised responsibly on a nearby farm. This dish is easy to prepare and serve, as the chicken roasts on a bed of apples they 'melt' and form a tasty rustic pan stew that's then easily tossed with the roast chicken. Serves 4 to 6.

Ingredients:

- 4 local apples, quartered and cored
- 2 onions, peeled and cut into large chunks
- 2 carrots, cut into small chunks
- 1 head of garlic, peeled into individual whole cloves
- salt and pepper to taste
- 2 large sprigs of fresh rosemary
- 1/2 cup apple cider
- a roasting chicken, 4 lbs. or so
- 2 thinly sliced green onions

Preparation:

Preheat your oven to 350°. Toss the apples, onions, carrots, garlic and rosemary together in a roasting pan large enough to hold the chicken. Season them well with salt and pepper. Pour in the cider. Season the chicken well and rest on top of the apples. Place in your oven and roast until a meat thermometer inserted in the thickest part of the chicken thigh reads 165°, about 20 min. per pound.

As soon as the chicken is cool enough to handle, slice, cut, pull, shred, tug and otherwise remove the meat from the carcass using any tools at your disposal including a pair of tongs. Reserve the carcass for chicken broth, another meal. Toss the meat with the apple pan stew. Sprinkle with the green onions. Serve and share!
